

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Jackson County, Missouri

The Jackson County Prosecuting Attorney's Office has an opening for Deputy Prosecuting Attorney. Jackson County is the second largest County in the State of Missouri with approximately 670,000 residents. The County includes a majority of the City of Kansas City as well 19 other municipalities that include Independence, Lee's Summit, Raytown, Blue Springs and Grandview.

Title: Deputy Prosecuting Attorney

Salary: DOQ (dependent on qualifications) + Benefits

Job Duties: Supervises six Division Chiefs and indirectly supervises an additional 150 employees including 50 support staff. Assists in the preparation of and administers the annual budget. Maintains liaison with police agencies, local, state and federal agencies and community groups and assists the Prosecuting Attorney with projects as assigned.

Minimum Qualifications: Must have a JD degree, and seven (ten years preferred) as an attorney, and be a member of the Missouri Bar Association. Preference is given to candidates with extensive trial and management experience. Must submit to/pass pre-employment drug/background screen. Non-smokers preferred.

Apply: www.jacksongov.org/jobs