

Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutor
Missouri Office of Prosecution Services (MOPS)

The Missouri Office of Prosecution Services (MOPS) is seeking applications for a Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutor (TSRP) to support statewide traffic safety initiatives funded through the Highway Safety and Traffic Division grant program. The successful applicant will report to the Senior TSRP attorney and assist Missouri prosecutors and law enforcement agencies in improving the investigation and prosecution of impaired driving and other traffic safety offenses.

Training Programs and Equipment: Assist in the planning, coordination, and presentation of statewide and regional training programs for prosecutors, law enforcement officers, judges, and traffic safety professionals. Topics may include impaired driving investigations and prosecutions, DRE-related issues, field sobriety testing, blood draw procedures, traffic stops and vehicle searches, injury and fatality crash prosecutions, emerging drug trends, and related courtroom issues. Responsibilities include assisting with conferences, webinars, in-service training, preparation of course materials, and development of legal updates and presentations.

Special Prosecutions and Trial Assistance: Provide litigation support and trial assistance to county prosecuting attorneys handling impaired driving and traffic safety cases, including serving as special prosecutor in cases involving conflicts, recusals, or complex legal issues. Assist with charging decisions, motion practice, evidentiary hearings, trial preparation, and jury trials.

Technical Assistance and Reference Materials: Serve as a statewide resource prosecutor for Missouri county prosecuting attorneys and law enforcement officers by providing legal research, consultation, technical assistance, sample pleadings, legal updates, and assistance with emerging traffic safety issues. Assist in updating and distributing training manuals, case law summaries, and other reference resources.

Traffic Safety Liaison Activities: Serve as a liaison between Missouri prosecutors and the broader traffic safety community, including law enforcement agencies, victim advocacy organizations, task forces, judicial partners, and national traffic safety organizations. Attend statewide and national traffic safety conferences, and committee meetings to support statewide coordination and training initiatives.

Work Location and Travel: MOPS offices are located in Jefferson City, Missouri, and office space is available. This position may work remotely within Missouri with the understanding that frequent overnight travel throughout the state will be required to present training programs and conduct trials.

Compensation and Benefits: Expected salary range is $80,000 to $110,000, subject to grant funding. This position is eligible for Missouri state employee benefits.

Qualifications: Applicants must be licensed to practice law in Missouri or eligible for admission in Missouri. Significant criminal prosecution experience is preferred. Strong courtroom, writing, organizational, and public speaking skills are required.

Application Process: To apply, please submit a cover letter, résumé, and writing sample in PDF format to Ms. Sheila Johnson at sheila.johnson@prosecutors.mo.gov.
